

Cara Kelly, Ph.D.

Cara Kelly is a Child Welfare Program Specialist with the Children's Bureau in the Administration for Children and Families (ACF) at the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). Dr. Kelly oversees a diverse portfolio of both programmatic and research projects related to child welfare. To date, Dr. Kelly's portfolio at the Children's Bureau includes projects related to State and Tribal Title IVE Prevention Program implementation, the National Child Abuse and Neglect Data System (NCANDS), State and Tribal child welfare technical assistance, and the National Data Archive on Child Abuse and Neglect. Prior to her current position, Dr. Kelly held social work and research positions at the Arizona Department of Child Safety, Phoenix Children's Hospital, and Arizona State University. She holds a Masters and Ph.D. in Social Work both from Arizona State University.