5th Annual NIDA-NIAAA Early Career Investigator Showcase

Friday, October 18, 2019

11:30 AM – 12:30 PM

Marriott Marquis, Chicago, IL

The National Institute on Drug Abuse [NIDA] and the National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism [NIAAA] are presenting a symposium, Early Career Investigator Showcase [ECIS], as a satellite event to the 2019 Annual Meeting of the Society for Neuroscience [SfN] in Chicago, IL. The ECIS symposium provides a forum for scientific presentations by premier young and junior investigators working in the fields of alcohol and substance abuse and addiction research. This symposium will take place on Friday, 18 October 2019, from 11:30 AM – 12:30 PM during the 2019 NIDA-NIAAA Frontiers in Addiction Research Mini-Convention (8:30 am – 5:30 pm). The scientific sessions for the 2019 Mini-Convention will explore: 1) sensing technologies in addiction research; 2) innovative approaches for translational research in alcohol and substance use disorders; and 3) rewriting genes by CRISPR in substance dependence and psychiatric disorders.

NIDA and NIAAA are now soliciting applications from investigators to participate in the ECIS symposium. Applicants at extramural institutions must have current grant support. Eligible awards are: i) a Ruth L. Kirschstein National Research Service Award Individual Postdoctoral Fellowship [F32], ii) a mentored career development award [K01, K08, K23, K99], or iii) a research project grant [R01, R03, or R21] and meet the definition of a NIH New Investigator/Early Stage Investigator [NI/ESI] of being within 10 years of completing a terminal research degree or medical residency [http://grants.nih.gov/grants/new_investigators/]. Up to six (6) individuals will be selected for this symposium. Each will be provided transportation to this event, one-night hotel accommodation and associated per diem expenses up to $1000. Applicants within the NIH intramural program must meet the definition of a NIH NI/ESI. However, intramural investigators cannot be reimbursed for travel expenses. Individuals selected for ECIS will be chosen for the quality of their research, its impact in the field, and its relevance to the mission of NIDA or NIAAA. Preference will be given to presentations that address a scientific session of the Mini-Convention.

To apply, please complete the attached application form, include your Curriculum Vitae/Resume and list of publications, and send via email (to ECIS.Abstacts@seiservices.com) by Friday, August 16, 2019 5:00 PM (EDT). To consider your application, you must select only one Institute on the form. Abstracts accepted for the 2019 SfN Annual Meeting in Chicago, IL may be submitted for presentation at ECIS. All applicants will be notified of the status of their submission by Friday, August 23, 2019. For additional information, please contact: for NIDA [Roger Sorensen, rsorensen@mail.nih.gov] or for NIAAA [John Matochik, jmatochi@mail.nih.gov].
