

Ann Anderson, MD, MPH, Medical Officer, CRGB, DTMC, NIDA

A family practice physician for 12 years, including some obstetrics, then 3 yrs at CDC in fetal alcohol prevention and training to investigate disease clusters and outbreaks. Develops and oversees clinical trials for new pharmaceutical treatments for drugs of abuse. Serves as Program Officer for a portfolio of grants and cooperative agreements; reviews Data & Safety Monitoring Plans; evaluates progress. Reported and analyzed adverse events, and published findings of multi-site trials for the Division. Joined DTMC in 1999.