

Craig PoVey, M.S.W.

Craig PoVey M.S.W. works for the State of Utah, Division of Substance Abuse and Mental Health, where he is the Prevention Administrator. Through serving in this capacity, he is a member of the National Association of State Alcohol and Drug Abuse Directors, Inc. (NASADAD). He served on the Board of Directors for NASADAD and is the Past President of the National Prevention Network, a subsidiary of NASADAD. Craig PoVey's broad understanding of behavioral health science and the needs of prevention practitioners has landed him in several advisory committees including guest member of the Society for Prevention Research, CADCA's Coalition Advisory Committee, and the Center for Prevention Implementation Methodology. He is the past Chair of the Utah Prevention Advisory Committee. In his early career he was a mental health and substance abuse therapist for adolescents.