

Karen Hellman, M.A.

Since graduating from John Jay College of Criminal Justice with Masters in Forensic Psychology in 1996, Karen has worked in the field of Corrections. Prior to joining ADCRR in 2004, she worked for the Arizona Department of Juvenile Corrections and the Maricopa County Sheriff's Department. During her career she has held a variety of positions including Youth Corrections Officer, Psychology Associate II, Academy Training Officer, Program Supervisor, CTS Administrator and her current role as Assistant Director for IPR. Karen is a Licensed Independent Substance Counselor and a Master Addiction Counselor.